

CRAIG DILLINGHAM

Born In Brownwood, Texas And First Started Singing At The Age Of 8 With His Older Sisters. In The Late Sixties & Early Seventies "The Dillingham Sisters" Sang Around Brownwood & The West Texas Area. They Also Appeared With Rick/Bobby Sikes & The Rhythm Rebels At Panther Hall In Ft. Worth. In The Seventies Craig Worked With Ray Price And In 1976 He Became A Regular On The Louisiana Hayride. Recording For Curb Records, In The Eighties, He Had 5 Charted Country Songs With One "Have You Loved Your Woman Today" Reaching #32 Qualifying Him For The West Texas Music Hall Of Fame.

