

DEBBIE REYNOLDS

Mary Francis Reynolds Was Born On April 1st In El Paso, Texas. At Age 8 Her Family Moved To Burbank, California. At Age 16 She Won The Miss Burbank Contest And Then Warner Brothers Signed Her To A Movie Contract Giving Her The Name Debbie Reynolds. In The fifties She Married Singer Eddie Fisher And They Had Two Children Carrie And Todd. Debbie's Recording Of Tammy, From the Movie, Became One Of The Top Songs Of 1957. She Followed With Two More Pop Hits Including "Am I That Easy To Forget" A Country Song Written By Carl Belew. In 1959 America's Sweetheart Was Involved In One Of Hollywood's Sensational Shockers As Fisher Walked Out On Debbie for Liz Taylor. In The Nineties Daughter, Carrie Fisher, Became Famous On Her Own Starring In The "Star Wars" Movie. In 1997 The Debbie Reynolds Hollywood Hotel And Casino Opened In Las Vegas. But Unlike Her Movie "The Unsinkable Molly Brown" The Casino Went Under. Debbie Starred In 32 Movies Receiving One Oscar Nomination. Her Hit Record, From 1957, "Tammy" Holds The Title As The #1 Song from West Texas.

