

SEALS & CROFTS

Jimmy And Dash First Became Members Of, One West Texas Most Popular Rock Groups, "Dean Beard And The Crew Cats". In Order To Get More Playing Dates Many Of The Local Rock Bands Changed Their Formats To Include Country & Western Swing. When Los Angeles Studio Musicians Recorded Their Smash Hit, "Tequila" In 1958, A Road Band Was Needed And This Opened The Door For Jimmy Seals And Dash Crofts. A Short Time Later

Dean Beard Joined Up With The Champs. After 7 Years With The Champs Jimmy And Dash Formed Their Own Group, The Dawnbreakers. Next Came The Duo: Seals And Crofts, And With Their New Found Harmony And Song Writing, Came The Hits And The Bucks. Eight Top 40's In The Seventies Plus Eight Albums. 5 Albums Went Gold & 1 Went Platinum. Three Of Their Singles, Diamond Girl, Summer Breeze, And Get Closer Went To #6 In The Top Pop Charts. Besides Being Talented Writers And Singers Jimmy And Dash Were Also Accomplished Musicians Playing On Their Own Recordings. (Mandolin & Guitar). "Seals And Crofts" (The Top Seventies Duo) Songs Are Still Being Heard Around The World In The Nineties. Jimmy Was Born In Sidney (Near Brownwood, Texas) Raised In Rankin, Texas And Dash Is From Cisco, Texas (Near Abilene).
